Meet the Speakers

New legislation - The Draft Terrorism (Protection of Premises) Bill Counter Terrorism Policing Wales 10.15am – 11am

Local counter terrorism security advisers (CTSAs) work closely with businesses, representatives of trade organisations and professional bodies across the UK, making sure their protective security measures and plans are kept up to date with the latest counter-terrorism security advice.

Safeguarding and Social Media Phil Davies Professional Together 11.30am – 12.15am

Phil completed more than 30 years in the metropolitan and south Wales police service, Going from police constable to Chief superintendent, Phil has vast experience in the investigation of serious crime through planning large scale events.

Along with colleague Tim Jones, the pair decided to combine their knowledge and skills and use them for the benefit of the outside world.

They chose a team of specialist trainers, drawn also from the high-risk world of policing, to provide guidance, support and effective learning toolkits to companies and individuals in a world of ever-evolving risk.

Are you ready to step up?

Are you due an IWFM membership upgrade? More importantly, are you selling yourself short?

IWFM's 2021 Pay and Prospects research found that qualifications increase the likelihood of advancement in organisations (and associated benefits, like increased pay). Our membership grades link directly to qualifications and experience, so if you have the right credentials, make sure you carry the post-nominals you deserve.

If you feel you are ready to step up, please send your CV to engagement@iwfm.org.uk

For more information, log into your IWFM account and click on the 'Membership' tab.
